In recent years there has been a great change in the practice of medicine and pharmacy.

To keep pace with this change we pharmacists are continuously studying the drug and medical journals. As soon as a new drug is released we not only stock it, but learn all about its dosage, action, proper compounding, and preservation.

That is why we are prepared to compound any prescription, prescribed by any physician, no matter how distant, exactly as he specifies.

3000 Pupils In School Next Year

At least 3000 pupils will be enrolled in public schools by September.

School Supt. Edward I. Erickson has presented that estimate to the School Committee, indicating that 2981 are already known to be coming. The added 19 will certainly be on hand by September, Erickson said, if the pace of the last five years is to be followed.

He estimated that the growth, since 1950, has been 200 each year.

School principals have provided the following estimates of school population in September:

Bradlee, 151; Shawsheen, 375; West, 339; Central, 986; seventh grade, 215; eighth grade, 205; ninth, 220; tenth, 205; eleventh, 121 and twelfth, 118.

With the outgoing senior class is the outgoing school and the name of "Punchard". Next year's senior class will hold its commencement exercises from the new auditorium of the now nearly completed Andover High School on Shawsheen rd.

Raytheon Will Produce New Guided Missile

The successful development of a versatile air defense missile system designed to reinforce the low-altitude capability of our air defense was announced today by the Department of the Army and Raytheon Manufacturing Co.

The missile will be manufactured in the Shawsheen plant, with an anticipated 2000 employees here by early winter. Plant spokesmen said there will be nothing about the production that can be in any way harmful, as war-heads will not be attached here nor will there be any testing of the device locally.

Miss Weldon Is Elected By Society

MISS CORNELIA A. WELDON

Twice a cum laude graduate, Miss Cornelia A. Weldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Weldon of Johnson rd., this week was bestowed this second great scholastic honor when she received her diploma and B.A. degree from Newton College of the Sacred Heart. She also graduated cum laude from Abbot Academy.

Further honoring her for outstanding leadership and scholarship, Miss Weldon has also been elected to membership in Kappa Gamma Pi Society, the National Catholic Honor Society for Women's Colleges.

While in Newton College of the Sacred Heart Miss Weldon majored in English and for the past two years was editor-in-chief of the college newspaper. This summer she will study at University College in Dublin, Ireland, and, having been awarded a Fellowship at Marquette University in Milwaukee, she will prepare next fall for a Master of Arts degree.

Howard 17's are harvesting fast under generally sunny skies. As for me, I expect to be in berries up to her next Wednesday afternoon when I shall be joining in on a strawberry klatch with Boston food editors and Home Economics directors at the Roger Lewis and John Asorian Farms, W. Andover.

Just how do these growers' wives prepare and serve strawberries to their own families? I posed the question to my neighbor, Mrs. Wallace Rennie of the 50-year-old George Rennie Strawberry Farm, and won a wonderful sounding pie recipe for all my curiosity. It goes like this:

STRAWBERRY PIE

(Mrs. Wallace Rennie)

1 tbl. gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1 cup milk
2 eggs separated
3/4 cup sugar
1/8 tsp. salt
2 cups sliced strawberries
1 tsp. vanilla extract
3/4 cup whipping cream
1 tbl. sugar

Soften gelatin in cold water 10 min. Scald milk in top of double boiler. Beat egg yolks, then add sugar and salt. Pour scalded milk slowly over egg mixture, stirring constantly. Return to double boiler and cook until custard coats the spoon, keeping up with the stirring. Remove from hot water, add softened gelatin and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Cool. Fold in 1 1/2 cups strawberries and vanilla extract. Beat egg whites stiff, fold in. Pour into a baked 9" pastry shell and set in refrigerator to chill about 1 hour. Just before serving, whip cream adding the tablespoon of sugar. Arrange whipped cream in six individual nests and fill each with remaining 1/2 cup of strawberries.

Another promising variation for strawberries was Mrs. Lewis'

STRAWBERRY SOUFFLE SALAD

(Mrs. Roger H. Lewis)

1 box strawberries
1 pk. lemon Jello
1/2 cup strawberry juice
2 tbl. lemon juice
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 cup chopped walnuts

Dissolve the Jello in 1 cup hot water. Add fruit juices, mayonnaise and salt and blend well with rotary beater. Pour into refrigerator freezing tray. Quick-chill in freezing unit until firm 1-inch from edge, but soft in center. Turn mixture into bowl, whip with rotary beater until fluffy. Fold in the washed, hulled and drained berries and walnuts. Pour into in-

Gourmet "Steals"

Worth Tasting

If there is anything more exotic on a June supper table than a fine crystal bowl filled to the brimming with fat, red, ripe strawberries, I haven't an idea what it would be! My clean-up squad at home flushes with excitement every time I challenge their patience with this tantalizing sight. They know it's hands off 'till the rest of the meal shows up, but somehow they seem to bear the long wait much better with something gorgeous to look at.

The week just ahead and the following should be the peak of the early strawberry crop, to all the local growers at any rate. The

SKILLET COOKIES

(Mrs. Leverett N. Putnam)

2 tbl. butter
1 cup finely chopped dates
1 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs
3 cups Rice Krispies
1/2 cup chopped walnut meat
1 tsp. vanilla
Powdered sugar

No oven baking with these. Mrs. Putnam has a favorite iron skillet which she uses but the controlled fryer would do for it is very important to keep your heat low. Melt butter in pan, add dates, sugar and slightly beaten eggs. Stir constantly over low heat until a large batter is achieved, then remove from the heat and cool slightly. Add Krispies and nuts and mix well. Spread out two sheets of waxed paper, dust with powdered sugar, divide the "dough" into two parts and roll with your hands onto the papers. Seal the ends and store in refrigerator. These wonderful cookies are ready to eat whenever you are. Just slice off with a good sharp knife and they won't crumble a bit.

Exeter Students Win Prizes

Talking over the first art competition between Phillips Andover and Phillips Exeter students are Glen Krause, Exeter art instructor; John J. Whitham and Pat Morgan, Phillips Andover art instructor.

This year for the first time in the history of the two "rival" schools, Phillips Academy and Exeter vied with each other for excellence in art.

The competition was set up this year under the direction of Bartlett H. Hayes, director of Addison Art Gallery of Phillips and Glen Krause, director of the Exeter Art Gallery, through the Ralph Bradley Art Prize Trust, newly established this spring.

Twelve works of art, six from Andover and six from Exeter exhibited last week at Addison Gallery, were judged by the Director of the Museum of Fine Arts of Boston, Perry T. Rathbone and the two top winners meeting the Trust's specifications for "the most competent and expressive draftsmanship in any medium", went to Exeter Academy.

First prize of $50 went to Derwood R. Crocker and second prize of $25 to T. Edward Cox, the former for his sculpture "The Kneeling Figure" and the latter for his oil painting of "The Orchard".

According to Exeter's Art Director Glen Krause the "two tons of plaster used last winter" by his students of sculpture was most rewarding.

The Ralph Bradley Art Prize Trust has been placed in the hands of Attorney John C. Whitham Jr. of Andover for choice of art competitors each year. Mr. Bradley, an accomplished artist and connoisseur of Boston and Canton, Mass., and son-in-law of Dr. Godfrey Lowell Cabot, has set up the art trust purely to stimulate greater interest in a competitive basis among young artists.

Collects Glasses

Elaine Whitney, a senior at Pynchard High School, has the very interesting and unusual hobby of collecting state drinking glasses.

In August of 1955, while Elaine was vacationing in Maine, she won a Maine State glass as a souvenir at a fair. Since then she has accumulated 14 more from various states including Massachusetts, New York, New Hampshire, Connecticut, Maine, Vermont, New Jersey, Pennsylvania,

North Dakota and South Carolina. Winning the first one was certainly easier than it has been hunting in many novelty and souvenir shops for the others. Most of these glasses are tall, usually of frosted glass with a map of the state on them.

For Elaine, traveling has come to be thought of as a means to follow her hobby. Part of her time on each trip is spent hunting for a glass that she can take home to add to her collection.

decided to sponsor a permanent, non-profit local theatre producing group to be known as "The Children's Theatre Workshop".

It will, with two permanent play directors, a standing committee of 12, and participating school children throughout all sections of Andover, endeavor to bring excellence in children's production as well as selective plays which best please the audience.

The executive board has been fully set up and heading it as chairman is Mrs. Samuel S. Rogers of Salem st. Mrs. Thayer S. Warshaw of Carisbrooke st. is treasurer. Mrs. Frederic C. McCabe of Lawrence, secretary; Mrs. P. Hayden Clark of Holt rd. and Mrs. Rutley Robinson of No. Andover, directors for two years; Mrs. John S. Cole of Wolcott ave. and Mrs. James D. Wilson of Lowell st., directors for one year; Mrs. James A. Grew of Main st., president of the League and executive director; and Mrs. Harford Powell of Highland Wayside, artistic director.

To carry the creative effort to its full realization - the acting, directing, stagecraft and producing - is best developed through organized group work the Parents League believes. Designing and making the costumes as well as the properties constitute valuable areas for artistic expression and imaginative creation. Also there is the great fun that the "whole play" gives to children of all ages. This fact was conclusively demonstrated in three past productions under the League sponsorship and in which Andover children participated. "Quest for Courage", written by Mrs. N. P. Hallowell Jr. of Hidden Field; and "Eeyore's Birthday Party", adapted from the A. A. Milne story by Mrs. Samuel Rogers and Mrs. Harford Powell, were too excellent "fun" productions in December of '55; and "Wonderful Tang", directed by Mrs. Blaine Saunders of No. Andover in February of this year was also highly successful.

At an executive board meeting held at the home of Mrs. Rogers last week, committee chairmen were appointed and dates set for the first play in fall. Mrs. Saunders and Mrs. William R. Edwards, the latter of Salem st., will serve as play directors. Both have done a great deal of amateur directing and have a sensitive understanding of the nature and purposes of the drama as an art.

Friday evening, Nov. 15 and Saturday afternoon, Nov. 16, are the play dates and it is planned to use grades 7, 8 and 9 of the Junior high school at this time, with Mrs. Edwards directing. After some winter workshop activity, a play for children of the younger grades is anticipated with Mrs. Saunders doing the directing.

Following are the committee chairmen: Mrs. Vincent F. Stulgis, tickets; Mrs. William T. Rich III, lights and make-up; Mrs. Albert K. Roehrig, costumes; Mrs. John Pickering Jr., talent; Mrs. William R. Bennett Jr., script girl; Mrs. Harry O. Blaisdell, publicity; Mrs.

The hearing before the Appeals Board on whether the Club might use the house for a club brought sharp dissent from residents of the Castle Heights section. They claimed it would devalue the property and otherwise interfere with the single residence district. The Appeals Board found, however, that no nuisance would be created by the Club, providing it followed some 16 restrictions set forth in the decision. Among them were restriction of membership to 300.

Club spokesman Atty. Roland Sherman had told the hearing that about 300 persons may join the Club and he described the Club as being for the purpose of meeting with businessmen in a private place for luncheon or dinner.

Planning Bd. Asked To Hear Views On Sign

The Planning Board will be asked to reconsider its negative opinion on the erection of an industrial development sign on state land at the By-Pass.

The Board rejected the request brought before it by Selectman Sidney P. White at the request of the Committee for Industrial Development in Lawrence. The sign would have read "Welcome to Greater Lawrence, New England Leader in Industrial Growth. Grow With Us." Also the sign would list the names of new industries in the area. Its size was listed as eight feet high by 12 feet length.

The Board voted to write the Selectmen that it disapproves billboards of this type in Andover.

It was learned this week that a representative of the Development Committee will appear before the Board June 19 to further describe the sign and its purpose. Similar signs are in place in other communities of the Greater Lawrence area.

At The Library

Summer Library Fun

Summer months at Memorial Library show a bit of a change over winter months. They take on a "vacation mood" with more frequent story hours, and summer reading is made exciting and interesting to all boys and girls. During June, July and August library records for books read by the children will be kept as usual, but this year an unusual technique is being used in that the young readers will travel via books. Some children will have small suitcases of paper on which to paste travel stamps as they complete the reading of each country they visit; others will have travel wallets.

More story hours are held, also, during the summer months. Vacation loans allow young people to take six books at a time instead of the usual four, and books that are not in special demand or on the summer reading lists may be taken for the summer, to be returned by September 16.

If parents accompany a child, a larger number of books may be borrowed at a time.

Summer Hours

Boys and girls may visit the library mornings, from 10 to 12 in the summer and again in the afternoon they may use the children's room from 2 to 5. Saturdays the library closes at noon for the day.

Anyone For Puppets?

Miss Margaret Lane, Children's librarian, has asked all boys and girls who wish to join one of two puppet making groups to register early, since numbers will be limited. This year the members will make puppets of a different type and will plan shows to be given with their own puppets.

55 Seniors Will Continue Schooling Next Fall

Fifty-five of the 93-member graduating class at Pynchard will attend schools of higher education.

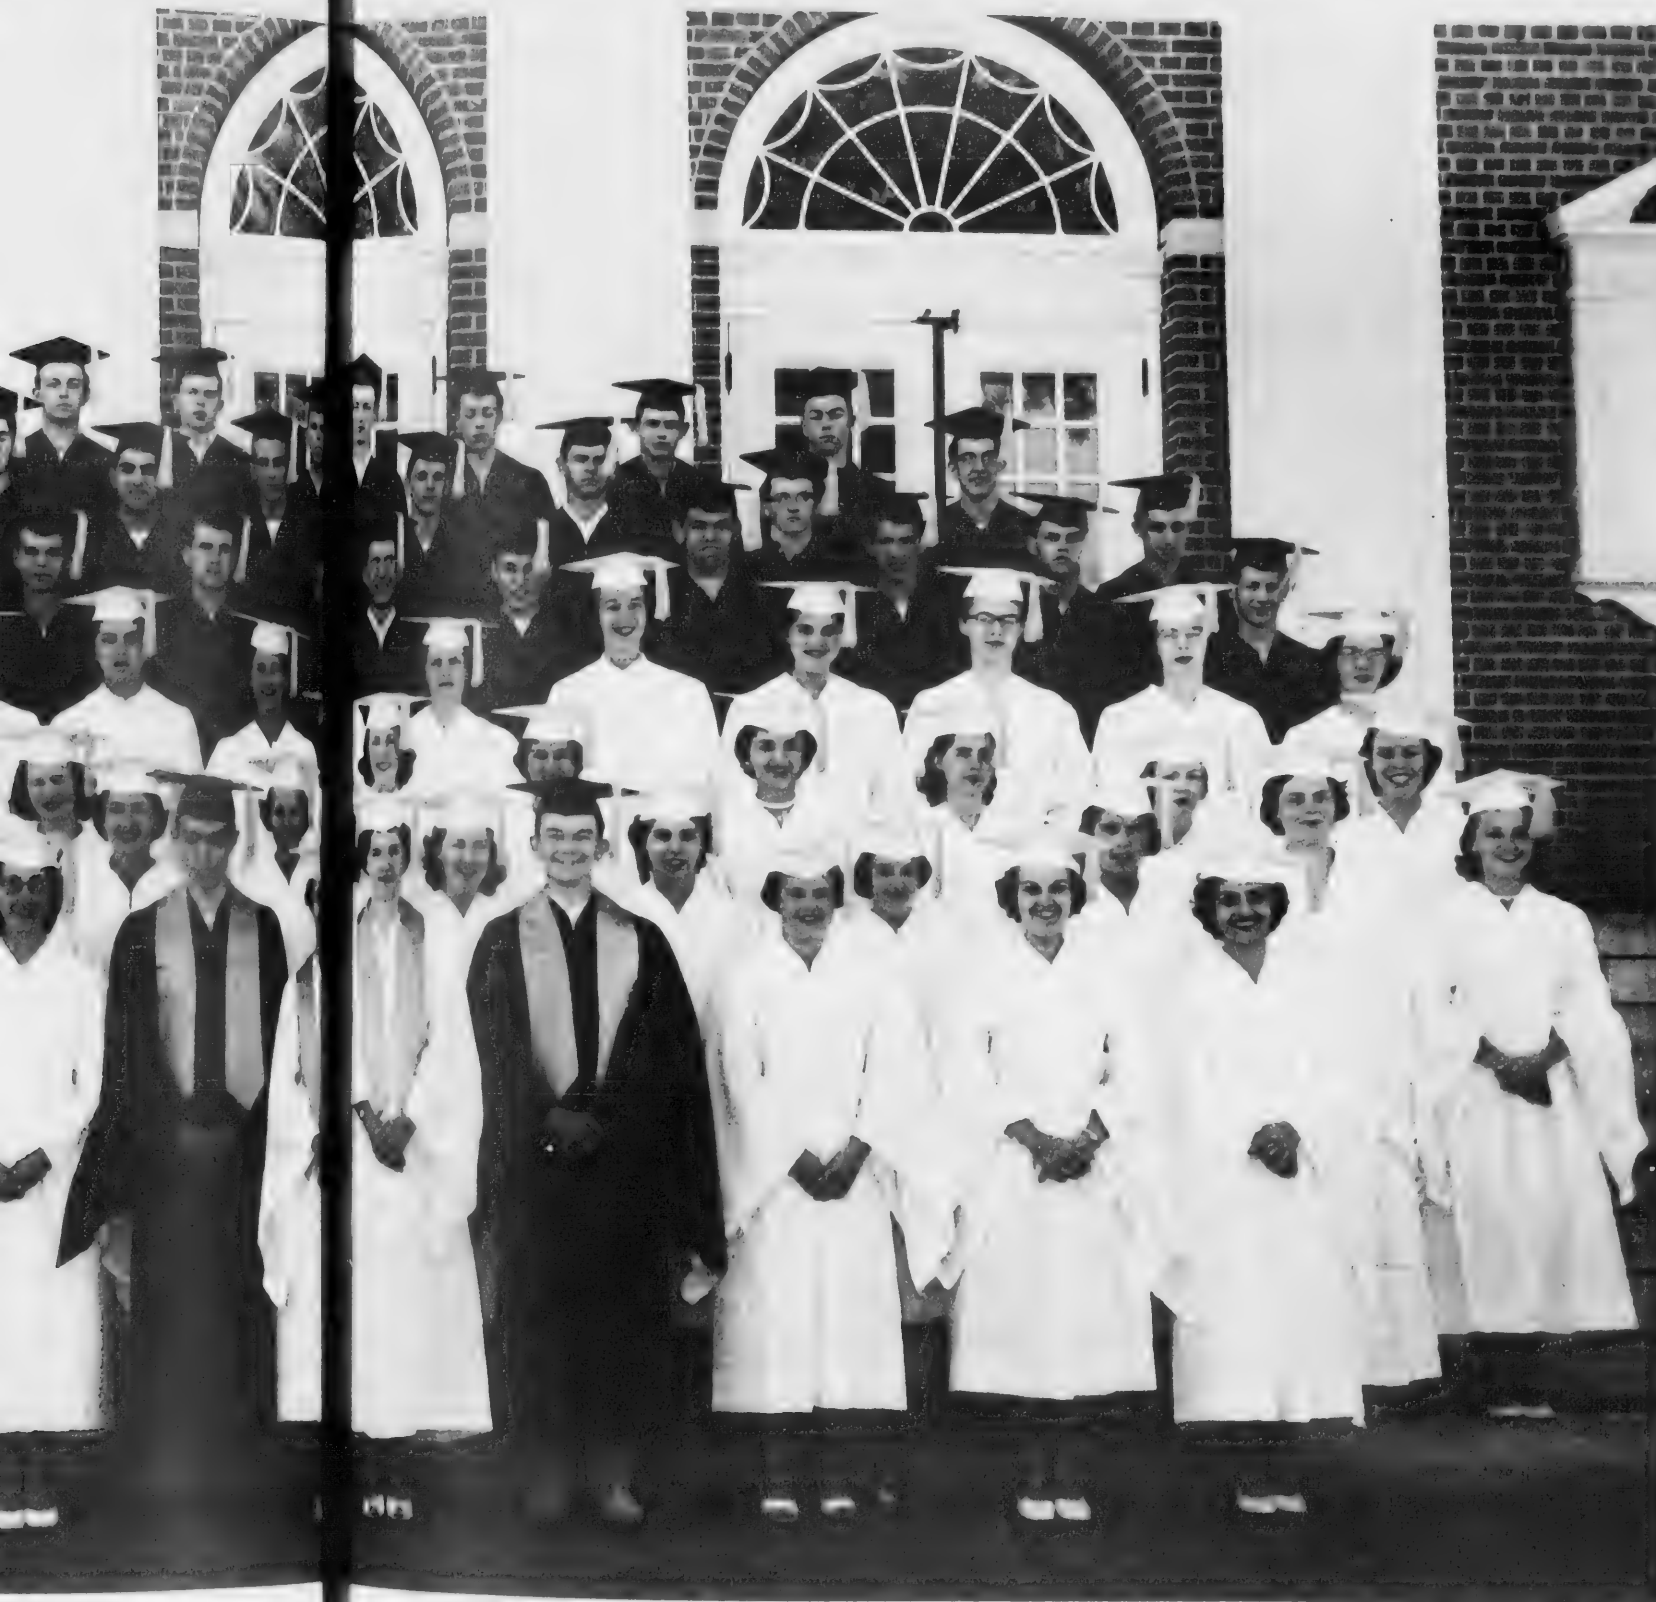

And of that group, 39 will go to four-year, degree-granting colleges or universities.

Bernard M. Kellmurray, 21, vice director at Pynchard, explained that the number of graduates going to other schooling is 22 per cent higher than in 1956. There is a gain of 20.6 percent over year in the number of seniors.

Moving At Punchard

Part of the huge moving task underway at Punchard High School is packing cumulative guidance records for the entire school system. Bernard Kellmurray, guidance director; William [unclear] assistant; Isabelle Phelan, Punchard dean of girls; Katherine Sweeney, Junior High School [unclear] of girls and Katherine Donahue, Junior High counsellor get the work underway in preparation for the big move this summer.

The initial stages of moving into the new high school are underway at Punchard.

Cardboard boxes supplied by the superintendent's office have been distributed to the teachers to pack books and equipment not needed for the remainder of the year. This does not interfere with the regular school schedule, which is to be followed, including examinations, right up to June 19, the final day of school.

During the summer, supplies will be transferred to the Andover High School under the supervision of the School Committee. It is expected that by the opening of school in September, all will be in readiness for the orderly commencement of classes.

In other Legion news, Cmdr. Whitcomb and Past Commander Frank Markey attended a recent County Commanders banquet in Lynn, at the Shoemaker Post. Markey is a charter member of Post 8 and has maintained his membership here for 37 years. He holds a gold life membership pin, presented some years ago.

SELECTMEN BAN DISPLAYS ON PUBLIC SIDEWALKS

The Selectmen have banned displays of merchandise on public sidewalks.

Taking action at the request of Selectman William V. Emmons, the Board decided to notify Police Chief David Nicoll that no merchandise may be placed on the town's sidewalks for display purposes. Some question over sidewalk ownership was discussed, but the Board felt that any merchant who wishes may attempt to prove ownership - until that is done, members said the town should claim the sidewalks it has put in and maintained for many years. Town liability for anyone injuring himself on the merchandise was given as a prime reason for directing the police department to enforce the ban.
